Date: 04/30/13

Employee Name(s): Saul Carrasco, Osiel “Fonzy” Elicerio

Superintendent: Roland Garza

Company: Infinity Construction Services, LP

While preparing to make a lift, Osiel was inspecting the rigging and discovered that one of the shackles was manufactured overseas. The client has a policy in place that all rigging must be American made. There were others found because of Osiel’s awareness and willingness to speak up.

Saul Carrasco participated on several committees over the past months and spoke in our safety kick off meetings in February, along with the client management and ownership of the company. His willingness to participate and speak in front of his coworkers was very beneficial to company.
